

See and Serve Healthcare Team

3rd – 26th August 2012 | Naini Leprosy Mission Hospital, India

Who can apply? Both those who are students and are qualified across the healthcare spectrum: Doctors, Nurses, OT's, Physios, Pharmacists, Social workers, lab technicians and others

Why go? To see leprosy first hand, and to serve leprosy patients. To experience life and work within a mission hospital

Training – At the start of your time in Naini training will be provided at specialist Leprosy Training Unit on hospital campus

Departmental work – The remainder of your time will involve deployment around relevant departments of the hospital

Accommodation – The team will stay at the hospital guesthouse. Meals will be provided.

Costs – approx £1,250* – includes flights, accommodation, food, training and visa.

*Nb. This cost is dependant on flight costs

Closing date – Friday 24th Feb 2012

How to apply – for an application form or more information email peter@tlm-ni.org or visit leprosymissioninsight.org

Allahabad Leprosy Colony

OT department

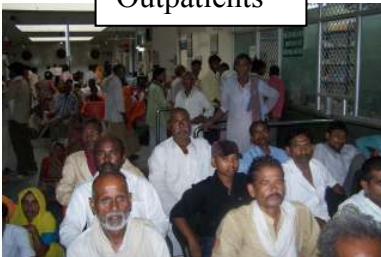

Training Unit

Reconstructive surgery

Outpatients

Medical electives at front of hospital

Morning devotions in the chapel

Physiotherapy

